W. A. Bishop of the firm of Peck and Bishop, said: "We are getting more work out of the Yale men than we do out of our regular hands. They are hustlers. Many of them have refused to accept pay for the work, saying they are in sympathy with us and are willing to help break the strike. The men say they are not afraid, but we asked for police protection for them in such places as we think they would be apt to meet with trouble."

It is rumored that one of the principal members of the crowd of Yale strike breakers is the son of a wealthy team owner in Chicago, who was affected by the great teamster strike in that it. three hours, arrived at their destination with light hearts and a keen appetite.

After a round of cliff climbing and snake killing the crowd was graticed with the sight of chicken, ham, eggs, cake, pickle, delicious fruits, and other toothsome food, which soon vanished. After the noon lunch it fell to the lot of Misses Jimmie Keele and Nannie Browning, James Morelan and Word Todd to wash dishes, which they did with credit and dirty pocket handkerchiefs. The merry crowd after waving adieus to their many new-made Dawson acquaintances started for supper at Crabfree was allowed by the chaperones. And here was where Charlie Webb showed his intuition as a clerk, while buying sugar of an accommodating matron, and setting the price himself with the plea, "I sell sugar, myself; I know what it's worth." The ride home was an enjoyable one overy member of the happy crowd. At 9:30 the party reached home and, after thanking their chaperones for their efficient service, retired to their respective homes. No. 11 did not run Tuesday on account of the scarcety of cars

A meeting of the directors and stockholders of the St. Bernard Mining Co. was held in their office at this place Monday and Tuesday.

At a meeting held recently be-tween a number of mine opera-tors and miners' officials, to adjust certain matters that were in controversy, one of the opera-tors said:
"That where abnormal conditions existed, for his part, he was willing to make satisfactory adjustment, but he did not think that the miners had any grievacci in the point at issue?"

that the miners had any grievance in the point at issue."
When he had finished speaking one of the miners' officials, who had not been favored with many educational advantages in his youth, said, said:
"We contend that abdominal conditions do exist in this case, and we ask for a proper and fair settlement, in view of those abdominal conditions which we have just shown, and if we don't get it we shall be obliged to quit work."

G. B. Burden took Henry Jenkins, an employe of the Oak Hill Coal Co., fox hunting Monday night. They had four good dogs and had unusual luck, getting the fox started by eight o'clock. After an all night run is they returned home about daylight. Jenkins says he likes fox hunting but an all night run is all ittle too much for him.

The chain that hauls the empty cars from No.9 broke at the stop of the slope Monday. There were 18 empty cars attached to it and went rapidly down the slope. A colored boy rode the cars from top to bottom and was uninjured. Two or three of the cars were mashed and otherwise injured.

REVENUE OFFICIAL TAKES AN ILLICIT DISTILLERY.

ncidentally Makes Impromptu Temper-ance Talk.

That Deputy Collector Rundall is possessed of a fine literary ability, and will make a successful story writer if he ever decides to give up the chasing of "moonshiners" was demonstrated by the receipt of a report from him of a capture of a distillery at Blackwater Creek this week. Part of the report describes the capture of the moonshiner, and reads as follows:
"At 10'clock in the morning we

DIDN'T KNOW HIS UNCLE.

Henderson Boy Made an Am ing Inquiry About "Uncle Sam."

A youngster at Henderon, who has some kinfolk in the mavy, heard a good deal of talk about "Unled Sam" at the time of the recent visit of the Monitor Arkanass to Henderson and Evansville, and himself was an interacted visitor pon the decks of that splendld fighting machine. Finally he said: "Mother, is "Unde Sam" your brother, or Father's brother?"

Now is Your Time.

If you have delayed your buying of your summer Dress, either of Woolen Goods, Lawns, or the readywoolen Goods, Lawns, or the ready-to-wear, you have certainly played in good luck by the delay as you can get the choice of as good a line of these goods as you formerly had and best of all, they can be procured at GREATLY REDUCED PRICES, as we find ourselves too greatly loaded down with Summer Goods at this season of the year and are therefore com-pelled to install some way of reducing our immense stock by offering Cut Price Inducements right at a time when every other merchant is reaping his harvest.

To the Men.

If you have as yet not bought your Spring Suit, now is the chance of your lifetime for obtaining one at a very small cost to you; also your Summer Underwear, Shirts, Straw Hats, Shoes, etc., as you will find us no less than 20 per cent. cheaper than any other house in the city, for the reason that we are making an especial effort to close some of these lines during the remainder of this month.

Housekeeper's Chance.

Those of you that have as yet not cleaned house will be helped very materially by buying MATTINGS, CARPETS, and CURTAINS of us this month, as these goods must be disposed of before the real hot weather sets in, so do not delay this buying any longer, but come to us at once, and let us send you away better pleased with your purchases in this line by getting your pick of the Nicest Line of These Goods in the City.
